The luncheon, at which men of all walks of civil life, all ages and of unvielding lovalty to the cause of Lee and Jefferson Davis, fraternized with the fighting men of the navy, was given by the Richmond chamber of commerce. Admiral Sperry received an ovation.

Ovation.

He referred to "this first separate welcome since we have returned to our shores." said he had not read his official mail since arriving on the American side and smilingly added, "I do not know where the secretary of the navy is, and what is more, I don't care."

The admiral pointed out that the ovage around the world was no junket. 'While we have been encircling the dobe,' he said. "we have doubled the globe, 'he said, 'we have doubled the score of last year's target practice. The fleet's efficiency has increased 25 per cent by economy of coal consumption, due to hard and faithful work of the men below decks. #### EDMUND VANCE COOKE IS PLEASING

At the First Methodist church, Thesday evening, a small audience was greatly delighted with an evening of recitation by a remarkably clever and versatile man, Edmund Vance Cooke of Cleveland, O.

Mr. Cooke, "The Ohio Poet," has published several volumes, the chief of which are "Rimes to Be Read," "Impertinent Poems" and "Chronicles of the Little Tot." They abound in delicate subjects, the humor delightfully funny, and quaint philosophy. The plain, common truths of human nature as evidenced in every-day life are set forth in homely phrase, but with a muster hand. There is much in these volumes that is equal to Eugene Field at mes that is equal to Eugene Field at his best.

The evening's entertainment consist-The evening's entertainment consisted ed entirely of recitations from the author's own writings, and covered a pleasing variety of subjects from the domestic dialect of "Nathan's Flat" and the "Hand Me-Down Philosophy" of the Irish iconoclast, to the sentimental lines of "The Red Cross Noise" and the patriotic "Story of Old Glory." Their presentation displayed a versatility and brought forth a facile adaptation to the subject in band that was most pleasing and was much appreciated by the andience. The poem, "Don't You," and the bright child sayings of "The Little Tot" were particularly well received. The entertainment was given under the anspices of the Epworth league of the First Methodist church.
